

Meal By Meal Seed Grant Application Process

TCF's Meal By Meal Seed Grants

Three to four grants ($700) are awarded yearly that allow either an individual or an organization to support agrobiocultural and culinary diversity.

In particular, TCF funds qualified individuals or organizations to conduct small research projects or individual/community efforts on issues related to food, culture, and the arts in a globalized world; under-represented culinary traditions; historical migration of food with people; school and community gardens and kitchens; and programs that seek to ensure food security.
